Following his return to the shelter, Walter was available for a mere eight days before finding his forever family â€”complete with resident dogs and children. Adoption counselors were able to make a reliable match for Walter based on the information we had just learned the week prior. Walter continues to enjoy his forever home and sends us regular updates.

My weekend getaway at Shreyas Yoga Retreat was a real treat, one has to be physically present to get a feel and sense of the place. I would highly recommend this to anyone seeking time to rejuvenate and just break away from the mundane city life. It is surreal indeed, you get inner peace and tranquility. I came back with an open mind and just writing about it now makes me want to head back ...

The silver spoon in the mouth too often becomes the silver dagger in the back - an ill considered gift that saps ambition and drains motivation, that deprives the young person of the adventure of finding his or her way. Grasping an opposing point of view was a way of sharpening the mind. He thinks of education, ultimately, as the fulfillment of curiosity. The substance of education has to do ...
