What was life like in medieval London? London changed a lot during the medieval period. From the 600s to 800s London was located in the west, where Covent Garden is today. At the end of the 800s people moved back into the old Roman town due to increased Viking raids. The old town had the remains of a wall around it and people felt safer there. At this time London's population was about 8,000 ...

What was life like for children in Victorian London? Victorian children lived very different lives to children today. Poor children often had to work to earn money for their family. As a result, many could not go to school. London's population grew rapidly during the 19th century. This led to major problems with overcrowding and poverty. Disease and early death were common for both rich and ...
